

Suggested monthly youth activities are not designed to conflict with the established youth programs within an organization. Churches and other organizations are encouraged to plan their monthly activities if they desire. The idea is to highlight the importance of youth as the nation's most precious resource.

January

Values Education Month

Highlight the importance of good citizenship, and Christian values

February

Buffet Food

Heritage Education Month

Treat the youth to a buffet dinner, show heritage videos, share heritage information, etc.

March

Entertainment Month

Sponsor a trip to the movies or family entertainment

April

Armed Services Month

Encourage the youth to send cards or write letters to those who serve in the armed forces

May

Travel Month

Sponsor an out-of-town trip

June

Health Education Month

Invite a health professional to come and discuss ways to remain healthy

July

Joint Activities Faith Month

Plan an activity with another Church or organization, emphasize religious training

August

Education Month

Invite educators to discuss ways to succeed in the school system or host a mathematics or language arts seminar

September

Sports Month

As a group, attend a local or out-of-town sporting event

October

Law Enforcement Month

Partner with other churches or organizations in the area and invite law enforcement officers to come and discuss ways to avoid drugs, alcohol, and sexual predators

November

Parent Appreciation Month

Encourage youth to make cards or save money to buy their parents a gift or to take them out to dinner

December

Giving, Sharing, Talent Expression / Award Appreciation Month

Highlight the importance of giving to those who are less fortunate, emphasize the importance of positive relationships, plan an awards/certificate program with other churches or organizations and allow the youth to display their talents such as art, singing, building, writing, etc., host an appreciation meal, summarize the year, allow youth to discuss the highlights of the year

Promote PowerPoint Projects where youth make PowerPoint on the Fruit of the Spirit and other biblical themes.